Introduction & content

This fictional repaint for Perotinus's Mercedes-Benz O 303-15 KHP-L makes tribute to the buses used by Carris of Lisbon for the airport services in the late-1970s to the mid-1980s. They were primarily used for the famous Linha Verde [or route 90], from Santa Apolónia to Lisbon Portela Airport [although these buses were Salvador Caetano Alpha with Magirus-Deutz chassis in real life]. These buses were also used for excursion services whenever justified.

These Alpha buses were sold to Rodoviária Nacional's CEP 2 [later Rodoviária da Beira Litoral] in the mid-80s.
